

Resource Sharing & Publications Policy

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide clear guidance on how CBMC International evaluates and communicates resources created by individuals within our global movement. This ensures that all shared content strengthens the mission of CBMC while safeguarding the organization's integrity and global platform.

Scope

This policy applies to all CBMC International communication platforms, including but not limited to:

- The CBMC International website
- Email newsletters and global updates
- Social media channels
- Printed publications and official ministry communications

Policy Statement

CBMC International exists to advance the mission of evangelism and discipleship in the global marketplace. Our communication platforms are dedicated to strengthening unity, alignment, and Gospel witness across the CBMC family worldwide.

As such, CBMC International does not endorse, advertise, or commercially promote individual publications, products, or services. This safeguard ensures that the global CBMC platform is used solely for the advancement of our shared mission, rather than the commercial interests of individuals.

However, CBMC International may, at its discretion, share resources developed by individuals within the movement when such resources are:

1. Directly aligned with CBMC's mission of evangelism and discipleship in the marketplace,
2. Biblically faithful and consistent with the CBMC Statement of Faith, and
3. Offered to the CBMC family without profit motive or personal commercial promotion.

All decisions regarding publication or sharing are reviewed by CBMC International leadership to ensure clarity, consistency, and alignment with the organization's mission.

Review and Approval

This policy is approved and maintained by CBMC International Leadership. It will be reviewed periodically to ensure continued relevance and alignment with the mission of CBMC International.

Approved by CBMC International Leadership – [March 2025]